2. Case Study

2.1 Description

Review a case study presenting the current state of an organisation that is preparing to list on the stock exchange. Analyse the positives and negatives. Make recommendations as to what interventions should be put in place to improve the organization, with focus on all aspects of covered during the module. Propose an approach to implement the recommendations.

You are the engaged management consultant assigned you to the FinEdge project. You are tasked to review, assess and make recommendations on what FinEdge should do to be ready for its IPO as per the case study. Be guided by the expectations of the FinEdge Founders articulated in that document.

The details of the FineEdge case study (fictional) are in the PDF file attached to this assignment.
