Incident description

On 22 of September 2025 at approximately 16:07 PM, I was coming out of the library when I went to my car, which was parked in the Student Centre parking lot. Upon arrival, I noticed a piece of paper attached to the driver's door with a handwritten note that read:

"Sorry, check your left door of your car 0115597605."

I immediately called the number on the note, and the call went through to Protection Services. They informed me that someone had damaged my car while it was parked in the lot.

Following their instructions, I proceeded to their offices, where they explained that the matter was under investigation and advised me to make a formal statement.

I then went to the Brixton Police Station to report the incident. The case was officially recorded under Incident Number 1034/09/2025.
